

Free Sessions

Engage with the Experts:

A-Level Study Days

Itinerary: Graeco-Roman Egypt Day Wednesday 17th June 2015

- | | |
|----------------|---|
| 9.45am | Arrive and Register
Kanaris Lecture Theatre, The Manchester Museum |
| 10.00am | Welcome and Introduction
Cat Lumb, The Manchester Museum |
| 10:15am | Introductory Talk - (20m)
William Mundy, PhD student, Dept of Classics & Ancient History |
| 10.40am | On-Gallery Activities
Ancient Worlds
Facilitated by Museum and University Staff and Students
In Allocated Groups |
| 11:15am | Break (refreshments provided) |
| 11:30am | Object Handling and Investigation
Facilitated by Museum and University Staff and Students
In Allocated Groups |
| 12:30pm | Lunch (vouchers are provided) |
| 1:15pm | Preparation and Filming of 'Autobiographies' in groups
Supported by Museum and University Staff and Students |
| 2.20pm | Introduction to Classics at University
Short discussion about studying at University and opportunity to ask PG students questions |
| 2.35pm | Showing of group films
Followed by discussion & evaluation |
| 3pm | Day finishes |

Please note that the study day requires photography permission from students in order to take part in the film activity, as well as permit us to take photographs on the day.

If you have any questions please contact:

Cat Lumb - catherine.lumb@manchester.ac.uk – Secondary & Post-16 Humanities & Arts Co-ordinator, Manchester Museum

Leo Mitchell - leojameselliott@gmail.com - Workshop Leader, Department of Classics & Ancient History at University of Manchester